

Warzone

Armored Saint

When I dream I see movies in my head
I always have the starring role
But the scenery is never quite clear
'Cause the film is growing old But I just roll them dice
And I pray for snake eyes
Lonely warzone, that I defend
Lonely warzone, my only friend Insanity is the word I plead
'Cause the trenches are all filled up
With the bodies of men who used to laugh with me
They just got shot like sitting ducks But I just roll them dice
And I pray for snake eyes
Lonely warzone, that I defend
Lonely warzone, my only friend [Incomprehensible]
You know how I'm feelin'
[Incomprehensible]
Yeah, won't you yield it
Yeah, won't you yield it But I just roll them dice
I keep on rollin'
Lonely warzone, that I defend
Lonely warzone, my only friend Lonely warzone, that I defend Lonely warzone, my only friend No, no, no, no
