

I Miss You

Dikta

never been here before this is easier said than done opened another door i'm now on the wrong side of the sunand i see you your helping hand is on the way i'm still holding oni miss you and i'll miss you forever i need you and i'll need you forever the show has come to an endstories go flying by caught a tiger by its tail memories multiply i fear i'm going off the railsi don't need anyone this hurt will never be undone i scream i don't need anyone but youand with the curtains closed i'm searching for the exit light all i can hear is the whispering and no one else can show me really where i'm coming from i need you now to show me where i'm going
