

Lazy Day

Die Apokalyptischen Reiter

I listen to the sea, this is all what I have to be
I'm lying in the sun, enjoying this quiet fun
The wind caresses so softly
It feels like somebody loves me
The sky is painted in smooth blue
The drink in me hand, tooAnother lazy day no affrayThe night is coming, I see the moon
It's getting dark here soon
I'm looking at the stars but without any wars
Tomorrow I go down the hill...or maybe up
Or I stay here and shift into lowest gearAnother lazy day no affray
