

Outlaws Like Me

Justin Moore

I've been a rough houser A good time sleep arounder a Straight up whiskey pounder till I don't know my name I've been a church goer a front pew bible holder A cry on my momma's shoulder when she saw me change
But each day's a choice which one I'm gonna be God Bless outlaws like me
I curse the sun
I pray for rain
I'd run a mile
to walk through pain
I've seen the worst
and I've seen the best that I can be God Bless outlaws like me
I've been an SOBer
A night time bar room leaner
A go back and forth betweener and that's the truth And I've been a come home early get to my girl in a hurry

At night so she didn't worry
I even said I love you
But each day's a choice
of lovin her or livin free
God Bless outlaws like me
I curse the sun
I pray for rain
I'd run a mile
to walk through pain
I've seen the worst
and I've seen the best that I can be
God Bless outlaws like me
I curse the sun
I pray for rain

I'd run a mile to walk through pain
I've seen the worst
and I've seen the best man I can be God Bless outlaws
God Bless outlaws
God Bless outlaws like me
(Yeah)
