Hundred Reasons

I believe [Incomprehensible] fly
I can find my way back home
I believe I can try
But I felt, is that the end?I go blind, I can't see
But I need to find my way and
And you'll find me waiting
Yeah, and I'll be waitingNo excuses
Could make this worth it
Time againNo excuses
Could make this worth it
Time againI don't need to declare
That I hate you, that I know
You could live, you could die
I don't care, is that the end?Did it hurt? You're in pain
I don't care, I got my way and
You'll find me waiting
Yeah, and I will be hereWasting time with rivals
I'll come home
To see youWasting time with rivals
I'll come home
To see youYeah, and I'll be waitingNo excuses
Could make this worth it
Time againNo excuses
Could make this worth it
Time againWasting time with rivals
I'll come home
To see youWasting time with rivals
I'll come home
To see youWasting time with rivals
I'll come home
To see youWasting time with rivals
I'll come home
To see you
