Hundred Reasons

I believe [Incomprehensible] fly
I can find my way back home
I believe I can try
But I felt, is that the end? I go blind, I can't see
But I need to find my way and
And you'll find me waiting
Yeah, and I'll be waiting No excuses
Could make this worth it
Time again No excuses
Could make this worth it
Time again I don't need to declare
That I hate you, that I know
You could live, you could die
I don't care, is that the end? Did it hurt? You're in pain
I don't care, I got my way and
You'll find me waiting
Yeah, and I will be here Wasting time with rivals
I'll come home
To see you Wasting time with rivals
I'll come home
To see you Yeah, and I'll be waiting No excuses
Could make this worth it
Time again No excuses
Could make this worth it
Time again Wasting time with rivals
I'll come home
To see you Wasting time with rivals
I'll come home
To see you Wasting time with rivals
I'll come home
To see you Wasting time with rivals
I'll come home
To see you
