Take Me Down

Madison Lawrence

You don't have to try,
We just know it's right, yeah,
All the stars align,
When we met tonight, yeah,
Want you to be the one,
Who does me right, every night,
You don't have to say the words,
Just don't think twice, we can fight it,
There's nothing left for me to do,
Than to fall into those eyes, so blue, yeah,
Take me to your bedroom,
Let me get up underneath you, yeah,
Take me down, take me down, take me down
You are the heat on my finger tips,
You are the poison that's stinging my lips,
In this moment, I'm trying to catch my breath,
But you keep pushing me closer and closer to the edge,
Take me down, take me down, take me down
There's a fire burning through my veins,
And you could name my poison,
I'm bursting into flame, yeah,
It's such a rush, I need you close,
I need your touch right now,
I can't control it, yeah, I know it
No, don't slow it down
There's nothing left for me to do,
Than to fall into those eyes, so blue, yeah,
Take me to your bedroom,
Let me get up underneath you, yeah,
Take me down, take me down, take me down
You are the heat on my finger tips,
You are the poison that's stinging my lips,
In this moment, I'm trying to catch my breath,
But you keep pushing me closer and closer to the edge,
Take me down, take me down, take me down
There's nothing left for me to do
Than to fall into those eyes, so blue, yeah,
Take me to your bedroom,
Let me get up underneath you, yeah,

Take me down, take me down
You are the heat on my finger tips,
You are the poison that's stinging my lips,
In this moment, I'm trying to catch my breath,
But you keep pushing me closer and closer to the edge,
Take me down, take me down, take me down
