

I'm Over You

Connie Talbot

I saw the messages to her
They say you don't need me any more
Can't say that it didn't hurt So now I'm finding someone new Who's gonna treat me better than you
I'm so happy that we're finally through I don't need to hear you say one more lie
I don't need to hear you say your goodbyes for one last time
I don't need your empty promises
Or your stupid alibis
'Cause after all I'm nobody's fool
Even though you take me for one
I'm over you And now you say you want me back for good
But you won't get no second look
It's funny how you thought you could
Nowadays you don't even cross my mind
Don't you wish you could rewind
To all those days we were fine I don't need to hear you say one more lie
I don't need to hear you say your goodbyes for one last time
I don't need your empty promises
Or your stupid alibis
'Cause after all I'm nobody's fool
Even though you take me for one
I'm over you My day will mean I was playing with fire
I can't believe I even trusted you you liar I don't need to hear you say one more lie
I don't need to hear you say your goodbyes for one last time
I don't need your empty promises
Or your stupid alibis
'Cause after all I'm nobody's fool
Even though you take me for one
I'm over you
