

Turin Brakes

Break my mind open, rebuild me backwards
Up and down, round and round
Until a form takes non corporeal states
We're bound to pound the ground
Till all of the stars fall out of the sky
Ooooooooooooooh
Honey don't start that again
Winning or losing or picking sides,
Our stories twist to unfold
Up on your high horse my quiet resistance
So find the truth told
All good things in time
if 6 is a 9
Ooooooooooooooh
Honey don't start that again
Playing your Russian roulette
All good things in time
if 6 is a 9
Ooooooooooooooh
Honey don't start that again
Playing your Russian roulette
Look at you placing your bet
You liked me more off of my head
