

You Got Yr. Cherry Bomb

Spoon

Life could be so fair, let it go on and on
I can push for good and you got that cherry bomb
Blow out that cherry bomb for me
We lost it long ago, you and me
Now you know your way back from the spirit far
Brush your teeth for bed, blow out that cherry bomb
Blow out that cherry bomb for me
You got to know it's on your sleeve
Know it's on your sleeve
Well, know it's on your sleeve
It was the longest day that I've ever known
I watched you start that drive alone
Blow out that cherry bomb for me
It's gonna burn right up your sleeve
Burn right up your sleeve
So there you go again
Out in your dressing gown
Get yourself to bed
Blow out that cherry bomb
Oh, life could be so fair, let it go on and on
I could pay the man, [Incomprehensible] you cherry bomb
Oh, life could be so fair, let it go on and on
I could pay the man, [Incomprehensible] you cherry bomb
