Maybe I Should Have Been Listening

Gene Watson

Here you are back on my mind where you stay quite a lot
Bringing back all the old memories I thought I'd forgot
I just keep finding you with me and I don't know why
Maybe, I should've been listening when you said, goodbyeI can't believe how you keep hanging on to my mind
Now I know leaving means one goes and one stays behind
I can't escape from you no matter how hard I try
Maybe, I should've been listening when you said, goodbyeMaybe, I should've been watching when you walked away
Maybe, you wouldn't keep turning up day after day
If I'd paid attention I'd know you didn't lie
Maybe, I should've been listening when you said, goodbye
Maybe, I should've been listening you said, goodbye
