Keep Alone

My Ticket Home

Grow, grow, grow, grow, growing up.
Getting old ain't growing up.
I'm sleeping my days away in a bed I never made.
You're kill, kill, kill, kill, killing me.
Little bird you're killing me.
I gave my mind away, but I don't wanna change.I found a hole in my head.
I tell myself that I'm wrong.
You ask me hello, but I keep alone.
I'm stuck at home in my head.I'm feel, feel, feel, feel, feeling numb.
Dirt is good and clean is dumb.
Kick my chair, I'll fall through to the floor.
Head first right into your heart.
Fill, fill, fill, fill, filling me.
Wild smoke is filling me.
I burnt my mind away, but I don't wanna change.I found a hole in my head.
I tell myself that I'm wrong.
You ask me hello, but I keep alone.
I'm stuck at home in my head.I keep your words in mind.
I let your thoughts unfold.
I keep your words in mind.
I'm falling through your floor.Won't you keep, keep, keep in touch?
To lay with you I'm thinking of.
Love helps me consume, but I don't wanna change.I found a hole in my head.
I tell myself that I'm wrong.
You ask me hello, but I keep alone.
I'm stuck at home in my head.I'm falling through your floor.
I'm falling through you.
