Innocence (feat. AlunaGeorge)

Flume

When you hold me
All your innocence, something broken
All your innocence when you hold me
You hold me
All your innocence, something broken
Broken
All your innocence when you hold me
You hold me
All your innocence, something broken
Broken
All your innocence when you hold me
You hold me
All your innocence, something broken
Broken
All your innocenceWhen you hold me, all your innocence, something brokenBegin again, begin again
How do we begin again?
Start again, start again
How do we begin again?
Begin again, begin again
How do we begin again?
Start again, start again
How do we begin again?How do we get rain
And how do we get fame
(Something broken, broken)
(All your innocence)
How do we get rain
And how do we get fame
(Something broken, broken)
(All your innocence)
