Michelle Malone

Curtains billow in the breeze Dappled light spills down Sparrow singing in the tree
"Hush," the leaves say now I've been looking my whole life to find a place where I felt I belonged Now that I am by your side everything is light and I am home HOME, HOME, HOME stardust glowing in the sky moon lights up the sea
No more need I question why it has no meaning I've been longing all my life for a place where I felt I belonged No more shame, no tears, no pain everything set right and I am HOME, HOME, HOME
