

All Smiles

Jess Penner

Smiles, all smiles
Like the sweet light of the sunrise
I'm in love with something in your smile
All smiles, waiting for the love you give me
When you do I just can't help but smile You never have to shed a tear
Just remember that I'll always care
And when I am old, I'll see you smiling there When I'm sad you're the only one who cheers me
Let me see that heaven in your smile
