

Too Late

Hellfire Society

What have i done?
I've cracked the wings with my hands the picture is melting down in vain, i try to paint it againBut this time it's too late my dream has gone away
too late for anything anytihg, but you're still inside of meNo one understands all my words lost at the end how can it be this way?
The dead are bleeding like the lifeBut this time it's too late
my dream has gone away
anytihg, but you're still inside of me
