Lozin' Must

Millencolin

When I am lozin' must in a conversation
It makes me use my imagination
Start to think they're after me
'Cause I'm as sore as those monkeys hope
The chat goes on and I feel smaller
The guys in front of me, they get taller
When, when I open my mouth again to tell them something more
They answer me with a hockey score
Must be strong, can't be wrong
You'll be lozin' must
Yeah, you'll be lozin' trust in yourself
Must be strong, can't be wrong
You'll be lozin' must
Yeah, you'll be lozin' trust in yourself
Well, I have this girl and I make her crazy
When I'm gone, she's bored and lazy
I get a kick from pushin' her
But I'm not sure about how she feels about it
My favorite hockey team are strugglin'
It makes my stomach bubblin' bad

Their hard time really makes me sad
We had some fucked up years
Now it's time to wipe away those tears
Must be strong, can't be wrong
You'll be lozin' must
Yeah, you'll be lozin' trust in yourself
Must be strong, can't be wrong
You'll be lozin' must
Yeah, you'll be lozin' trust in yourself
It's been a tough time for me this past year
Lots of questions, who I am or what I wanna be
I also found some answers, the fog is gone
I feel better every day and now the feeling is here to stay
Must be strong, can't be wrong
You'll be lozin' must
Yeah, you'll be lozin' trust in yourself
Must be strong, can't be wrong
You'll be lozin' must

Yeah, you'll be lozin' trust in yourself
