

Amiga Mia

Ms Krazie

i cant keep letting you try to run my life but i make the wrong decision cut the tention with a knife, and now iam struggeling trying hard not to tumble its like every single day iam getting in some kind of trouble, i had it hard and you seem to make it easy, smiled when i looked in your face yeah you pleased me you did things for me that ive never seen before, and now iam stuck with you, hope you show me more, show me i dont got to shed an other broken tear tell me that ill be alright i got nothing to fear, show me that youll always be around that youll never leave tell me that ill be the one who wont end up asleep, let me see the end of my fantasy, let me show the world what i came to be dont want any problems but i know that your about you always seem to take the words out of my mouth

{CHORUS}

baby when iam all alone, and i cant go on, you keep me going strong till the pain is gone, even when iam all alone and i kant go oon, you keep me going strong till the pain is gonee

Gracias a ti a comprendido la felicidad es nuestra, vete a la cara se porque esto me cuesta, y porque tengo que aserlo que tu me dices lo que se necesita pa no ponerlos tristes iam hoping that you can help me keep dreaming, pushing me on when i feel that iam stinking letting me know that iam beautiful all day, taking me to where i need to be oneday, ill bring me out when i cant take it nomore, and when iam bad on my self and i start war, drying my tears when iam all out of laughter and complementing my eyes minutes after
