

In Your World (Live from Le Zenith)

Muse

I'm hurting you again too lonely to pretend Like everything is new,
I promised you to blow it all away. In your world nobody is trying alone
In your world no one is dying alone Too broken, to belong Too weak to sing along I'll comfort you my friend, helping you to blow it all away In your world, nobody is trying alone
In your world, no one is dying alone
