

Me

Faith Hill

I've changed my hair, my clothes, almost Everything about myself
I can't believe I tried to be somebody I'm not
For someone else, yeah
It took finding you to finally understand
What it's like to be loved for who I am
Me, that's all I have to give
What you get is what you see, yeah
No second guessing, no pretending
With you, all I ever have to be is me
Well I can laugh or cry, don't have to hide
The way I feel
Rain or shine, by my side proving we've got
A love that's real, yeah

An old pair of jeans or an evening gown
You still see the same girl that you found
Me, that's all I have to give
What you get is what you see, yeah
No second guessing, no pretending
With you, all I ever have to be is me
Me, that's all I have to give
What you get is what you see, yeah
No second guessing, no pretending
With you, all I ever have to be is me
All I ever need to be, oh yeah, all I ever have to be is me
That's all, that's all
