

Memories of You

Carol Welsman

waking skyes
at sunrise
every sunset to
seemes to be bringing med memories of you here and there
everywhere
semes that we ones knew and they all just recall memories of youhow i wish i could forget those happiest of years that have brought a rosery of tears your face beams in my dreams in spite of all i do and everything seemes to bring memories of you how wish i could forget those happiest of years that have left a rosery of tears oh your face beams in my dreams in spiste of all i do
and everything
its seemes to bring
memories of you
