Salute the Sage

Morgana Lefay

That's a night my mind
Has erased eternally
You're accusing me of murder
But I'm not that kind of man
No! I don't remember where I was
But I didn't do it, I didn't do it
Get away
I can't stay
It's unleashed
I'm living in between man and beast
Seven victims with their hearts torn out
Their hearts were found
In the trunk of my car
You call this evidence
Well, I call it lies
Someone must have framed me
I didn't put them there
I didn't put them there
Get away
I can't stay
It's unleashed
I'm living in between man and beast
Red moon
The night of possession
A blasphemous rage
Get away
I can't stay
It's unleashed
I'm living in between man and beast
Red moon
The night of possession
A blasphemous rage
