

Post Coital Kiss

Jay Buchanan

Well the blankets look jealous on the floor rolled up in a ball
And the clock on the wall is the one that watched yeah, it watched it all.

We just made love

My personal best

Now we're both out of smokes

And too amped up to rest

If the lord blesses lovers like this

Then the cherry on top is this post coital kiss

And I'll kiss you

Thank you for sharing your body with me

She says dance for me lover

Inside of me and I'll sing you a tune

So we danced the foxtrot, the watusi and the robot

Now we slow dance the spoon

With all of these candles and your natural perfume

Girl we sucked all the oxygen out of this room

If the lord blesses lovers like this

Then the cherry on top is this post coital kiss

And I'll kiss you

Thank you for sharing your body with me

Oh oh oh oh sugar

Oh oh oh oh oh I want you

If the lord blesses lovers like this

Then the cherry on top is this post coital kiss

And I'll kiss you

Thank you for sharing your body with me

Thank you for sharing your body with me
