

Driven

Destiny Praise

I have this desire that burns like a fire
That sometimes won't let me sleep
An insatiable urge to just read Your Word
Or a thirst to hear You speak
No way I can just sit still
Until Your purpose is fulfilled in my life
And all that I do
I'm driven to please You.

Time tables, time frames are subject to change
If You want I'll just be still
All meetings will stop, my schedule will drop
And I'll even skip some meals
This time I'll set aside and let
Your Spirit be my guide
Lord whatever You want I'll pursue
I'm driven to please You

I prioritize Your plan, I'll follow Your command
Though long the road may take shall never change my faith
What You see in me, I'll strive to be

I now make a choice to hear Your voice
Even when I'm in a crowd
People may look, people may laugh
But I choose to make You proud
You are my happiness, in Your will I find true success
Not driven by trends or what's new
I'm driven to please You.

Vamp: I'm driven to please You... repeat
