

Stop This World

Ne-Yo

Okay, I woke up in heaven today
She kissed me, I floated away, away
Never felt anything so great Alright now, I brace myself for the fights
Something must go wrong cause its way to right
Im light as a feather tonight, yeah, yeah Cause I cant feel the ground, someone let me down
Ive never felt so high as I do now
It's too good to be true, I dont deserve you
Ive never felt a love strong enough to
Stop this world from spinning
Stop this world from spinning And I see heaven when she looks at me
In her smile is the most amazing dream
And in her eyes I fall asleep And I hope, hope that she can see through the smoke
Of my imperfections into my soul
And my heart where she has control, she has control Cause I cant feel the ground, someone let me down
Ive never felt so high as I do now
It's too good to be true, I dont deserve you
Ive never felt a love strong enough to
Stop this world from spinning Happiness like this can never last, can never last
Turns into the memories of the past
Turns into the memories of the past
And today is going just as fast, going just as fast And I cant feel the ground, someone let me down
I said Ive never been so high as I am now
Its too good to be true, I dont deserve you
Ive never felt a love strong enough to
Stop this world from spinning
