

Feet, Don't Fail Me Now

NEEDTOBREATHE

I got this target
Right here on my back
They're aiming where I was
Not where I'm at
Yeh they ain't stopped me
Since I was eighteen
I'm moving faster
Than my enemies I can't slow down
I can't get stuck
I'd rather die than have to hang it up
Don't wanna look up
And it be over
Don't want to wish that
I had longer
It's my time
Yeah it's my town
I pray my feet won't ever slow me down
Don't fail me now I saw my last dream
Roll out around me
I'm trying to chase me
Down a fantasy
I felt the moonlight
Reach down and touch me
I need another night
Before you leave
