Unforgiven

Donna Lewis

Another face, another name Stand in line, all the same I've been here so many times I don't know the reason whyDo I want to live to tell Chained inside this living hell Cries of freedom never heard I guess this is what I deserveWho am I? Alone in this world Alone in this world Without love WithoutEyes of sorrow, eyes of shame Self destructions so insane I don't care, just let me go Let the veins of scarlet flowShow me a sign Unlock the door Release me, I'm yours Into the clouds Higher, higher, higherI like to sit and think alone I like to dream of coming home Maybe now the voices sleep This time
