Washed Away

Eyes on the Shore

This time, three days
I lost your faith
Your trust, my words
Distort your world
I'm not okay
Just lost my way
Oh god I learned
But lost your world
I'm nothing

All my perfect promises drifting away
Time fears nothing
Honesty losing it's way

This time, three days
I lost your pretty face
My worlds been torn in two
I'm down and bruised
I'm not okay
Just washed away
I'll toss and turn
To you my word means nothing

All my perfect promises drifting away
(Hey)
Time fears nothing
Honesty losing it's way

All my perfect promises drifting away
(Hey)
Time fears nothing
Honesty losing it's way
