Love Lift Me

Amanda Marshall

Somebody told me once in a lifetime
Destiny finds you, it blows you away
Spins you in circles, pulls you in pieces
Bleeds you like Jesus and goes on its wayBut it's, oh, so simple sometimes
Just to lay your heart open wide
If you wanna get to Heaven
Then you gotta take the rideLove lift me wherever you are
Convince me I'm safe in your arms
Love lift me, make sense of it all
Teach me to fly and don't let me fallSomebody told me love makes you stupid
Makes you go crazy, makes you go blind
Comes uninvited and leaves when it wants to Calls you at midnight and ties up your lineBut it's, oh, so sweet when it's right
(There's nothin' better)
And you swear you won't but you might (You're gonna try)
Gotta fumble in the dark if you wanna see the lightLove lift me wherever you are
Convince me I'm safe in your arms
Love lift me, make sense of it all
Teach me to fly and don't let me fallAnd when it's all said and done
It's just the same for everyone
You're busy making your plans
Love's like a bird baby flying out of your handsAnd it's, oh, so hard to explain
(We don't know nothin')
When your heart gets hold of your brain
(But still we try)
Better batten down the hatches baby
Here, we go againLove lift me wherever you are
Convince me, I'm safe in your arms
Love lift me, I'm waiting on you
'Cause nothing can lift me the way that you doLove lift me
Love lift me
Love lift me
(Only love can take me higher)
I wanna fly
