Way to Start This

The Maddigans

You stare across the table, I can`t help but let my heart go. Maybe it`s worth the chase. Is It worth the... Stop, Stop, turn around. Next thing I knew this shit has hit the ground. One more time we`re save and sound, we`re safe and sound. But what have we found...
I can't forget the time under the stars. That night you stole a piece of my heart and I wish I could take it back to the start, but I need to know where to start this Way to start this, where the heart is. You make it easy, you best believe me. Your eyes aren't one to resist. It's the kind of thing that's got to be permanent. If permanent didn't scare me to the death, you were under the blankets waiting for it.
I can't forget the time under the stars. That night you stole a piece of my heart and I wish I could take it back to the start, but I need to know where to start this
You've got me where you want me, won't you just make up you mind?
I can't forget the time under the stars. That night you stole a piece of my heart and I wish I could take it back to the start, but I need to know where to start this.
