Superwoman

Kandi

To all my single mothers out there
Turn this song up
And if your mom, sister, cousin or whoever is a single mother
Turn this song up
Trying to maintain, keep my head up and do the right thing
Stay living like a queen
But everyday I'm paying for the gifts and the money I receive
From the hustling to the mourning
I never thought I'd never seen you and I
And now all my kids wanna know why
Daddy's been gone
(For so long)
But they need a man in their life
Single mothers
Now do y'all hear me?
Like a real struggle
Hands up if y'all feel me
If you're the only one that takes care of home
Then, girl, you're a superwoman, a superwoman
If the daddy done left you alone
Then, girl, you're a superwoman, a superwoman
If you be working all the time for your child with a smile
You're a superwoman, a superwoman
If you sacrifice to better your child's life
Then, girl, you're a superwoman
Never want to be somebody's baby-momma
But when you really think about it, what girl would wanna?
Sit around and raise a child all on her own
Like me, that's why I put a verse on the song
Just like my mother raised me and my brother
That why I love her 'cause she's tougher
And those busters couldn't touch her
But, Lord, I know she suffered
And right now I just continue to struggle

Of being a strong mother on my hustle
Single mothers
Now do y'all hear me?
Like a real struggle

Hands up if y'all feel me
If you're the only one that takes care of home
Then, girl, you're a superwoman, a superwoman
If the daddy done left you alone
Then, girl, you're a superwoman, a superwoman
If you be working all the time for your child with a smile
You're a superwoman, a superwoman
If you sacrifice to better your child's life
Then, girl, you're a superwoman
Girls, it's hard
To carry the weight of the world on your shoulders
Girls, it's so hard
And ain't nobody trying to do nothing for you
Girls, it's so hard
You know that your waist hurt bending on ya
Girl, I know that it's tough but hold your head up
You're a superwoman
If you're the only one that takes care of home
Then, girl, you're a superwoman, a superwoman
If the daddy done left you alone
Then, girl, you're a superwoman, a superwoman
If you be working all the time for your child with a smile
You're a superwoman, a superwoman
If you sacrifice to better your child's life
Then, girl, you're a superwoman
You're a superwoman, you're a superwoman, yeah
I'm a superwoman, I'm a superwoman, yeah, hey
I'm a superwoman, you're a superwoman
Hey, we're superwomen
