Never Loved Another

Liz Longley

Dangerously close and
He already knows that I
I'm gonna crumble in his hands
Sweeter than words are his Hands on my curves oh he Loves me for all that i amNever loved another
Never loved another
Like i love mine
I never loved, i never loved
Never loved another
Never loved another
Like i love mine
I never loved i never loved
AnotherEyes like the ocean they Pull me in slow motion and
Each time I'm further from the shore
Every breath we take
Every move we make
He knows I'm coming back for moreNever loved another
Never loved another
Like i love mine
I never loved, i never loved
Never loved another
Never loved another
Like i love mine
I never loved, i never loved
AnotherNot like this before
No i never, never loved Somebody moreNever loved another
Never loved another
Never loved anotherNever loved another
Never loved another
Like i love mine
I never loved, i never loved
Never loved another
Never loved another
Like i loved mine
I never loved, i never loved
Another
