

Gonna Be Some Changes Made

Bruce Hornsby

There's gonna be some changes made
Gonna, gonna, gonna, gonna, gonna be some
Gonna be some changes made
Man was a knife expert kinda of a Jim Booey type
Swagging, blustering, 'coon skin
I said, "You're not serious, right?" Then I saw him grab my friend by the hair
And I guess I should have prayed
As he dragged him around, I said to myself
'There's gonna be some changes made' 'There's gonna be some changes made'
Girl, I knew and loved alone
twenty years from afar
With a finger to her lips, she led me out to see the stars
She led me down to the gritty lake and in it we did wade
She took my hand and put it there, gonna be some changes made
Gonna be
Gonna be some changes made
Gonna be some changes made
Gonna be some changes made
Changes made
Can't keep on doing what I've been doing these days
Look in the mirror, I see clouds of rain
Just gotta take it all, gotta get myself straight
There gonna be some changes, some changes made
Can't keep on doing what I've been doing these days
Better figure out something, things are looking grave
Gonna be some changes, changes made
Up in front for all to see, graceful like a bumblin' fool
Then I thought I felt slip from my mouth a little drool
Maybe, no one noticed it, on my mind heavily it weighed
I saw two people snickering
I said, "There needs to be some changes made"
Snickering
Gonna be some, gonna be some changes made
Snickering
Gonna be
Gonna be some changes made
Gonna be some changes made
Gonna be some changes made
Changes made
Can't keep on doing what I've been doing these days
Look in the mirror, I see clouds erased
Some changes made
Goin' home, I've done enough to sow my little name
Goin' where the fields are green and I can do my macram
A buffoon fumblin' without a clue who likes to shift the blame
And often feels betrayed, there's gonna be some changes made
There's gonna be some changes made
Gonna be some changes, changes made
Can't keep on doing what I've been doing these days
Look in the mirror, I see clouds of erased
Just gotta take it all, gotta get myself straight
Gonna be some changes, changes made
Can't keep on doing what I've been doing these days

Look in the mirror, I see clouds of erased
Gotta take it all, gotta get myself straightGonna be some changes made Gonna be some changesGonna be some Gonna be some
