

May Silence Keep You

Across the Sun

It comes from deep within
So swiftly without warning
A place that no one speaks of
Cares not for what's at stake
The beast tears into walls of the soul
IncessantlyThen breaks loose
Writhing and wretched
It breathes genocide
Upon the fiber of your being
Until nothing remainsHosting monstrosities
Body becomes a vessel
Controlling every step that's made
If left undone, true self expires
For all timeMay silence keep you always
Pray for the death
That you wrought
Walk with me
Come feel the light once moreReleasing this ghost of ages
Transforming before my very eyes
Reflection not my own
Descending to lifeforms unknownEvolving within to find a way
To cross the line, staying alive
Release me, be done with me
Become no more
