Skip the Seventh

River City High

(chorus)
isn't it funny how time slips away?
You started to forget about me one year ago today.
I still held on, I hoped it could be there.
I had the chance to see but i couldn't believe you didn't careI spent my time inventing ways to make you stay,
but it doesn't work that way.
Even if I built a new god and worshipped it for you.
Just for the simple hope that someday you will love me too.(chorus)I can't let go.
All i can think about is you.
And all you put me through.
And i try to sleep alone at night.
But when i close my eyes I see your face. I see your face.
And I've got sour grapes.
Even if i built a new god.
Even if i built a new god.
Built a new god.
