

Honest Eyes

Black Tide

Hate
I'm filled with hate, and guilt, and regret
How did I get so lost
Fight
I'll end this fight; pull myself out
Save myself at all costs

Give me my
My life back

How
How'd we come this far
And what did we survive
I'd rather live my life through Honest Eyes
Where did we go wrong
And what did we not see
I'd rather live my life through Honest Eyes

Scarred
The things I've done have left me scarred
I broke down every wall
Disgraced
A victim of my own disgrace
I rise above it all

It was driving me mad
It will mark the end

My path is clearer through honest eyes
My will is stronger through honest eyes

I'm taking my
My life back
