

Baby Jane (BBC In Concert)

Dr. Feelgood

Baby Jane, what a fool I've been.
I let you go; I cast my fate to the four winds.
Baby Jane, can you forgive me now,
And take away this heart of pain
That I'm living, girl? All that good, sweet, loving.
I guess you forgot.
All that good, sweet, hugging.
When I lost you I sure lost a lot. Baby Jane, what a fool I've been.
I let you go; I cast my fate to the four winds. Baby Jane, what a fool I've been.
I let you go; I cast my fate to the four winds.
All the things that I paid
For, running around.
I guess you know by now:
I'll never, never, never, never, let you down.
