Let It Go

Will Young

I have never been afraid of being alone
It's somehow typical of being a man - I know
But I woke in the night
My body full of fright
Could I provide for you?
Everything you've ever wanted
Could I really be the man I promised I would be
And support you tenderly
Let it go
Let it go
Let it go
'Cause it's out of my control
Let it go let it go
Don't have to have it all
Grips so tight it shatters
Only thing that matters
Only got one life
Heaven knows
What I'm stressing for
Let it go let it go
It's the simple things in life that bring me down
Like always being right
It leads to fights - oh no no
I'm running low on energy
The world keeps bugging me
And I keep thinking baby
How we gonna stay together
Can I really make a vow I'm never gonna keep
See that's what's bothering me - eee - eee

Let it go
Let it go
Let it go
'Cause it's out of my control
Let it go
Let it go
Don't have to have it all
Grips so tight it shatters
Only thing that matters

Only got one life
Heaven knows
What I'm stressing for
I've let it go
I know you tell me that I always think too much
And all that stupid stuff
Well, I've thought enough
Let it go
Let it go
Let it go
'Cause it's out of my control
Don't have to have it all
Grips so tight it shatters
Heaven knows
Let it go
Let it go
