

Guilty

UB40

Well, hello baby
Come here and sit down and make yourself comfortable
Tell me something, how long have we known each other?
About ten months, huh Say what's that you got on your finger? An engagement ring?
So you and John are engaged, huh?
You know he's a mighty lucky guy
He should be proud to have a woman like you Listen, I've got something I wanna tell you and Don't think I'm getting fresh or anything like that
But this thing been bugging me for a long time you know
And it's kinda getting heavier and heavier each and every day And I've just gotta get it off my chest
See I've never seen anybody like you
I've never known anybody like you
(Guilty, guilty of loving you) Let me take you back to my childhood awhile
See, we had a medium size family you know and we weren't rich
But my mother, she tried to bring us up the best she could (Guilty, guilty of loving you) Didn't commit no crime nor nothing
But I had to wait until I reach manhood to commit this crime
According to the code of love, if there is such a code
(Guilty, guilty of loving you) See, love is a thing that well, you know
It's a bit like quicksand
The more you wriggle the deeper you sink
And when it hits you you've just got to fall
That's why I do believe that I am guilty Said, I'm guilty, guilty of loving you
Said, I'm guilty, guilty of loving you
Of loving you
(Guilty, guilty of loving you)
(Guilty, guilty of loving you)
