The Walking Dead

Spinnerette

I'd rather be dead than to live like this
Than to just exist a hand and no fist
See the walking dead around me
Waking up and breaking down before my eyes
Rather be dead, rather shoot and miss
Rather die for a kiss than to live like this
Hear the walking dead surround me
Giving in and giving up because
We're all doing fine
And we're falling fast behind
I don't think we'll be the same again
We're losing our minds
We're all doing fine
Is there anyplace to hide?
I don't think we'll be the same again
We're losing, we're losing our minds
We walk tonight
I'd rather be dead than to have no hope inside
Watch my will bleed away and my soul divide
Feel the walking dead around me
Getting closer moving farther from the light
I'd rather be dead, stay alive to find
Somewhere I belong, someone to call mine
See the walking dead surround me
See the life and see the death and now
We're all doing fine
And we're falling fast behind
I don't think we'll be the same again
We're losing our minds
We're all doing fine
Is there anyplace to hide?
I don't think we'll be the same again
We're losing, we're losing our minds, let's go
Reach out, I never get it
It's just out of reach
And I watch it slipping away
Reach out, just forget it
It's never good enough
And it's never going to be the same

We're all doing fine
Is there anyplace to hide?
I don't think we'll be the same again
We're losing, we're losing our minds
We're losing our minds
We're all doing fine
And we're falling fast behind
I don't think we'll be the same again
We're losing our minds
We're all doing fine
Is there anyplace to hide?
I don't think we'll be the same again
We're losing, we're losing our minds
Don't give in, don't give up
We start tonight, we start tonight
Don't give in, don't give up
We walk tonight, we walk tonight
