

It Means Nothing

Chris Pierson

Did we lose ourself again?
Did we take in what's been said?
Did we take the time to breathe
All the things we said we'd be? And we bury heads in sand
But my futures in my hands
It means nothing
It means nothing You can find yourself a God
Believe in which one you want
'Cause they'll love you all the same
And just go by different names And you fly your flag today
And your pride and just ashamed
It means nothing
It means nothing It means nothing
It means nothing
It means nothing If I haven't got you
If I haven't got you
If I haven't got you
If I haven't got you When the sun sets in the sky
You're the apple of my eye
If the bomb goes off again
In my brain around the train And I hope that I'm with you
'Cause I won't know what to do
It means nothing
It means nothing It means nothing
It means nothing
It means nothing If I haven't got you
If I haven't got you
If I haven't got you
If I haven't got you
If I haven't got you, you It means nothing
It means nothing
It means nothing
It means nothing It means nothing
It means nothing
It means nothing
It means nothing
