The New Beginning

Controller

There was a point, a time, in life, that I have felt betrayed. And now a thought of starting, beginning, destined. Defeatist attitude, to self, that I have portrayed. And now I think to myself, must I remain the same.Must I begin again?
Must I begin again?-Chorus-
Am I wasting time, alone?
Or is something showing me the way?
Just keep, searching, for a place to call my own
My own.....I feel, the pressure building, out of control.....
Has destiny failed? Lost my patience ever bold!!!Begin again, start again....this wont let me.....
I won't lose myself in the thoughts that make me.....this way
This way.....Must I begin again?
Must I begin again?-Chorus-
Am I wasting time, alone?
Or is something showing me the way?
I feel, the pressure building, out of control.....
Has destiny failed? Lost my patience ever bold!!!
I feel, the pressure building, out of control.....
Has destiny failed? Lost my patience ever bold!!!I won't get in my.....(4x)
No, not this time....-Chorus-
Am I wasting time, alone?
Or is something showing me the way?
I feel, the pressure building, out of control.....
Has destiny failed? Lost my patience ever bold!!!
I feel, the pressure building, out of control.....
Has destiny failed? Lost my patience ever bold!!!
(I want to, but I got to, yes I have to face this down.....I won't get in my way)
