

Who I Am

Alan Jackson

Well I know you hate my drinkin'
And the way I talk sometimes
But you hate it most when I don't call at night
And it's just because you love me
And you worry 'bout your man
You do the best you can, with who I am
Burnin' both ends of a candle
Oh, can leave one in the dark
And I know what I put you through
Is hard upon your heart
And it's just that you're concerned for me
Sweetheart, I understand
You do the best you can, with who I am
You go to church on Sunday
While I'm still home in bed
Sleepin' off the night I had before
And sometime you say I'm perfect
And sometimes not worth a damn
You do the best you can, with who I am
Burnin' both ends of a candle
Oh, can leave one in the dark
And I know what I put you through
Is hard upon your heart
And it's just that you're concerned for me
Sweetheart, I understand
You do the best you can, with who I am
You do the best you can, with who I am

Songwriters

GEESBREGHT, APRIL / LEE, JONATHAN / FORDINAL, MICHAEL Published by

Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC, Warner/Chappell Music, Inc., Universal Music Publishing Group, TEN TEN MUSIC GROUP INC, O/B/O APRA AMCOS

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>