

Move On Alone

Jethro Tull

I feel so sad now that she's gone
I've been lovin' that woman too long
There is no place to go
Because my friends have all moved
Got nothin' but sit in the sunGot tired of cryin'
Guess, I'll move on aloneMy bed is so empty and my heart is grown cold
Guess, I'll just die before I grow old
The place is untidy
That's 'cause I ain't done my dirt
I just grown tired of thinkin'Got tired of cryin'
Guess, I'll move on alone
