Neurotic

McQueen

'cause it moves just like you
And it breaks just like me
And it lies just like them
And these walls are protecting meAnd so the story goes
Strip down it's the same
And so the story goes
In a blink of an eye you become history'cause it plays just like you
And it fades just like me
And it steals just like them
It's neverending it's neverending for meAnd so the story goes
Strip down it's the same
And so the story goes
In a blink of an eye you become historyI put my blinding faith in you
My philosophy says I should stopAnd so the story goes
Strip down it's the same
And so the story goes
In a blink of an eye you become history
