Everyone

Socialburn

How was I to know you'd ever leave?
And how was I to know you cared for me?
When every time I looked at you
You acted like I was a fool
How was I to know the truth?
With all the times you ran away
I never thought that you would say
"I'm the one who's lonely now"
And all the times I never said, "I love you"
Now you're in the bed with somebody and everyone else
How was I to know that I was wrong?
When I was talking during your favorite song
And how was I to know that I was right?
When I caught you in your lies the other night
With all the times you ran away
I never thought that you would say
"I'm the one who's lonely now"
And all the times I never said, "I love you"
Now you're in the bed with somebody and everyone else
Everyone, yeah
Everyone, yeah
Everyone, yeah

With somebody and everyone else
But somehow I know
That we're gonna be alright
But somehow I know
That we're gonna be fine
How was I to know that I was wrong?
When I was talking during your favorite song
With all the times you ran away
I never thought that you would say
"I'm the one who's lonely now"
And all the times I never said, "I love you"
Now you're in the bed with somebody and everyone else
Everyone, yeah
Everyone, yeah
Everyone, yeah
With somebody and everyone else

Everyone, yeah
Everyone, yeah
Everyone, yeah
With somebody and everyone else
