Sorry

Solas

When your time on the mountain is over
And you fall to the earth like a leaf,
It isn?t enough this time to say sorry,
Sorry won?t pay for this greave

You may lay your guilt on the altar
Who nail you remorse to the cross
But it?s not enough this time to say sorry
Sorry won?t pay for this lost

And when the blood on your hands turns to water
And the night on your soul turns to day
It won?t be enough this time to say sorry
Sorry won?t force it all the way

You may lay your guilt on the altar
Nail you remorse to the cross
But it not enough this time to say sorry
Sorry won?t pay for this lost

When you?re through with the spells you?ve been spinning
When you?re hopes and dreams have all died
It won?t be enough this time to say sorry
Sorry won?t turn back the time

And if you should desist from the seeding
And if you should confess to the crime
It won?t be enough this time to say sorry
Sorry won?t save you this time

You may lay your guilt on the altar
Who nail your remorse to the cross
It?s not enough this time to say sorry
Sorry won?t pay for this lost
