

All Mine (Remix)

Dance Hall Crashers

You're the one that I've been waiting on What took you, what took you so long
I'd just about given up on this
Oh yeah, oh yeah don't you wishThat you could go and forget about me
But that, but that'd be too easy
Don't you know that you're all mine
Mine until, 'til the end of timeBecause now I've got you
And I'm never gonna let you go
You can try to run
Just remember that I told you soI look at you and I see myself
Oh boy, boy do you need help
'Cause your mind's as twisted as mine Never thought, never thought I'd findAnd man that could get me to bite
At least every, at least every night
So I'm afraid you're stuck with me
Hope that makes you, hope that makes you happyBecause now I've got you
And I'm never gonna let you go
You can try to run
remember that I told you soDon't you know that you're all mine, don't you know that Don't you know that you're all mine, don't you know that
Don't you know that you're all mine, don't you know that know that you're all mine, don't you know thatYou're the one I've been waiting on
What took you, what took you so long
I'd just about given up on this
Oh yeah, oh yeah don't you wishThat you could go and forget about me
But that, but that'd be too easy
Better be ready to be only mine mine until, 'til the end of, mine until the end of timeBecause now I've got you
And I'm never gonna let you go
You can try to run
remember that I told you soDon't you know that you're all mine, don't you know that
Don't you know that you're all mine, don't you know that
Don't you know that you're all mine, don't you know that at you're all mine, don't you know thatDon't you know that you're all mine
Don't you know that you're all mine, don't you know that
Don't you know that you're all mine, don't you know that
