

Late For The Kill, Early For The Slaughter

Soilwork

Consider me dead if that's what you want
Gather around me, the day has come
Straight through the threshold, the morning calls
Wasn't meant to be there when I opened the door
You saw me begging, you saw me down on my knees
I felt defenseless and you don't know how it feels
I have made up my mind every time
It's been dragged in the dirt
Every scar wears a thought
Leaving battles that I've loved
It's been hard, it's been fiercely infected
It's been dropped, it's been suddenly present
Cutting ways that I've walked
Earning miles through it all
I was late for the kill but early for the slaughter
I don't care how it bleeds
I was late for the kill but stopped in to drag the waters
Turn the bitter to sleep
I do believe there's something more, though my vision's blurred
Straight out of nowhere with the lack of words
I've been given the time, I've been given the faith
Don't you try to stop me, don't you lie to my face
I have made up my mind every time
It's been turned to prevail
Every word feeds the crown
To dictate the profound
It's been hard, it's been fiercely infected
It's been dropped, it's been suddenly present
Cutting ways that I've walked
Earning miles through it all, through it all
I was late for the kill but early for the slaughter
I don't care how it bleeds
I was late for the kill but stopped in to drag the waters
Turn the bitter to sleep
Just hear me out on this one
'Cause I ain't got nothing to hide
I will wipe out this mess
And return to life
Consider me dead if that's what you want
Gather around me, the day is done
Late for the kill, early for the slaughter
I don't care how it bleeds
Late for the kill, stopped in to drag the waters
Turn the bitter to sleep
