

FALLEN Part 2

Jaden Smith

Let your heart just rest on mine, girl
The more I love, the more I like
Let your heart just rest on mine, girl
The more I love, the more I like
Let your heart just rest on mine, girl
Look at yours, it's alright
I just wanna hold you tight, girl
The more I love, the more I like
Let your heart just rest on mine, girl
The more I love, the more I like
Let your heart just rest on mine
Remember the time, when our hips were tight
You're my reminder, I need to find you
Girl we came so close
I still got your clothes sitting in my room, while I play this music
You're not my girl no more, let the rain just pour
While I lay here and listen to music
Starin' at the city lights on the bright side
You found another guy, just hope you're alright
Sure you'll be alright, prolly hold you tight
Don't you worry 'bout how I feel tonight
Girl tomorrow I'll catch another flight
I'll be sitting by you, so we didn't try
I don't wanna cry, don't want butterflies
Girl, you gotta fly, said I love you, and I didn't lie
You're all I know
I still got your poems hangin' in my room
While I play this music
I can't find you at home, at least I know you're gone
Summer's chasing away, and now your're losing
Staring at the city lights on the bright side
(I don't wanna see you on the edge)
You found another guy, just hope you're alright
(I just wanna see you in my bed, I'm stalling)
Sure you'll be alright, prolly hold you tight
(Baby girl, this love is not a game)
Don't you worry bout how I feel tonight
Girl tomorrow I'll catch another flight
Baby girl this love is not a game

I'll be sitting by you, so we didn't try
(Life and death are really not the same)
Tryna make it right, tryna make a life
Tryna butterfly, said you gotta fly
You know Harsh reality, soul fatality
Heart capacity, couldn't handle your audacity
Often they laugh at me, sweet tooth flow causin' a cavity
So I floss on these jokers, gotta call when they consult me
And my wrist on water like the faucet attached to me
We a monster, a masterpiece
Just because this is our current situation
Doesn't mean that this is how it has to be Things changes drastically, you was acting dramatic
I was sitting here passively, contemplating my actions
I'm in the state where I really feel like we never happened
All I have is my raps and these crumpled poems in trash cans
In the back of your mom's house with the stairways in them New York apartments
When I said I was the hardest, girl, those times were the darkest
You gave me the magic, a goddess, with all that Harry Potter shit
I hope one day you just stop and acknowledge this
I put my jacket down for you in the rain, that's only common sense
I try to fix all your problems even when I ain't cause 'em
And we working with our egos and we know that's colossal
And then we'll brush our love out the dust of the hills, like a fossil
I promise, Mazel Tov for the commas
At least my apologies aren't as part of my partners
When we just tryna get it popping
Never did get that semester in college
But I told professor this my synopsis I don't wanna see you on the edge, fallen
I just wanna see you in my bed, I'm stalling
Baby girl this love is not a game, can't you see I'm still all in
I don't know why you still opaque, can't you see I've been calling
I don't wanna see you on the edge, fallen
I just wanna see you in my bed, I'm stalling
Baby girl this love is not a game, can't you see I'm still all in
I know you still play with me Girl I'm rolling in the Hills, too focused on the mil's Wrote a poem bout a chandelier, sunset gleaming on the rings girl We can go do a lot of things, and me and you got a lot of dreams
Bottles in the East, and my legs are weak
We can make it really brief, just so we can get a-
Baby girl we need some sleep, you're the one I see
